From the Clubhouse

From the Desk of
Tim Timlin, General Manager/COO

Dear Members,

Well here we go as the arrival of October ushers in another exciting season at Hammock Dunes Club. This month's Dunescape is literally overflowing with events and excitement. As a number of you return from your summer destinations I would like to say, "welcome back" and for those that have spent the summer with us I say "thank you". As this is my first season with the Club, I can't wait to engage are tournament schedules, food & beverage events and of course the upcoming holiday season. Let's buckle up and get going!

On the heels of the communication from our Board of Governors regarding our 2023 Budgeting process I would also add a "thank you" for entrusting the daily operations of the Club to your management team. Rest assured we will do our due diligence when examining all levers of financial management while providing an extraordinary experience for our members as well as a rewarding environment for our team. Our operating budget is built with the number one priority of maintaining the levels of service, programming and food and beverage options befitting one of the best clubs in the State of Florida. Although we may be entering a climate full of economic uncertainty, I am confident the professional team assembled here at Hammock Dunes Club will deliver beyond expectation and deliver memorable moments throughout the year.

As we look to expand your dining options and meet the growing popularity of our F&B program, we will be opening the Creek Dining Room on Friday evenings beginning October 7. The month will also usher in Tunes on the Terrace, our new addition of themed weeks featuring Spanish Cuisine as well as the return of many of your Club favorites. With all of this activity I would also ask for your flexibility and cooperation so we may provide the best experience for our entire membership. We welcome dining reservations later in the evening and will always look to expand your dining options through special events and menu enhancements.

Looking forward to an awesome season at Hammock Dunes Club!

Yours in Service,

Tim Timlin, CCM, CCE, CAM

Golf News

News from the Golf Shop..

As the dog days of summer pass, we will start to see our members returning from their northern homes. Fall is on the way, and I don't know about you, but I am looking forward to some cooler weather. The Fall golf season will start with the HDLGA Opening Day on Wednesday, October 12 with an afternoon 12:30 p.m. shotgun start followed by a cocktail party. The ladies two-person partner event, the Fabulous Fall Shootout, will be played on Wednesday-Thursday, October 26-27 so hopefully you have your partners locked in and ready for two days of golf competition.

On September 9, the Hammock Dunes Men's Member Guest tournament sold out in record time and in record numbers, by 7:30 a.m., and there were 18 teams on the waitlist by the end of the day. The MGA is very excited to be hosting their premier men's event this year. The Hammock Dunes Men's Member Guest will be hosted November 9-12, and we are all looking forward to showing off our Club.

We will be conducting Saturday clinics at 10 a.m. on these dates: October 1, 8, 15 and 22. Paul Hawkins and Brian Bateman will be leading the clinics, so keep your eyes open for future emails.

October will also mark the beginning of the retail season starting to arrive in each of the Hammock Dunes Club golf shops. Debbie Phillips, Director of Retail, will be glad to help you fill your closet with some new clothes, or choose a new golf look. As always, we would love to hear your input regarding vendor selections. If you don't see something in either golf shop, we can always special order for you.

We hope to see you at the Club soon,

Gina Hull LPGA – Head Golf Professional

Audubon Corner...

The Tufted Titmouse is a common small song bird from the North American chickadee family. Found along the eastern seaboard year-round, it is a small black-crested song bird with a sultry sound, round gray bill above and whitish below. Its name comes from Old English "tit" & "mass" or small bird. Note the white forehead, black crest and large black eyes. It loves bird feeders. When it finds a large seed, it will carry it to a nearby perch and crack it with a sharp whack. A good way to attract them is to build a nesting box. To learn more, go to "Common Feeder Bird list"

Book Club

If you're looking for an entertaining book to read, pick up THE THURSDAY MURDER CLUB by British TV personality Richard Osman — book club's section for October 19.

Set in the peaceful, upscale British retirement village of Coopers Chase, the eponymous group of four septuagenarians compete with police in working unsolved old murder cases. The four unlikely friends meet every Thursday in the jigsaw room to apply their combined skills on the files of a former police officer. They are led by Elizabeth, who has a large network of helpful sources, possibly from her former life as a spy. Elizabeth is joined by a psychiatrist, a former nurse, and a political firebrand. When there is a brutal murder right at their doorstep, the murder squad goes to work, presenting a fascinating primer of cosy crime fiction and British humor.

Mark your calendars for Wednesday, October 19 at 4 p.m. in the Links Lounge/Library to join book club's discussion of this fun book. Patti Penski will be our meeting's leader. If you have any questions, contact Claudia Pierce, Kelly Marshall or Carol Swinburn.

Opera at Hammock Dunes Club!

Wednesday, November 2 ➤ 4 p.m.
Giuseppe Verdi's Nabucco
The Royal Opera House, 2013

Verdi's first masterpiece, Nabucco, kicks off our 2022/23 opera series with towering performances from Plácido Domingo and Liudmyla Monastyrskya. While the Financial Times declared that "Domingo has crowned the Royal Opera's new Nabucco," Monastyrskya "stole the show," according to The Telegraph with her "vocally scorching Abigaille." The Guardian weighed in, noting that the Chorus "maintains exceptional engagement, never more movingly than in Va, Pensiero, which is delivered with heart-stopping sensitivity."

All are welcome. The program will begin promptly at 4 p.m. in the Boardroom. There will be one 15-minute intermission, and it will end at 6:45 p.m. Please remember to arrive early and enjoy a glass of wine or champagne before.

As always, after the final curtain falls and the applause dies down, please consider staying for dinner.

Presented by Jinny Crum-Jones and Ian Jones in association with Barbara Arzonetti.

For more information about Nabucco and the rest of our upcoming 2022/23 opera series, visit www.dunesopera.com.

Reserve your seat for Nabucco now via Upcoming Events on the Club App or Member Website or call 386-445-0747.

Dinner can be reserved up to 10 days in advance.

Women's Bible Study...

The Hammock Dunes Women's Bible Study will resume Monday, October 10, meeting in person from 1-3 p.m. in the home of Bernice Weir, 19 Via Roma. A Zoom link will be provided for those who prefer to attend electronically. This set-up will continue 3-4 Mondays each month, skipping holidays.

The fall/winter study will examine the Hebrew Scripture's book of the prophet Daniel. Daniel (the person) is a 6th century B.C. Jew living in exile in Babylon. Daniel (the book) is a combination of wonderfully satisfying miracle stories (such as "Daniel in the Lion's Den") and mysterious prophecies of world history and its end in the cosmic kingdom of God.

Visitors are always welcome. You may confirm the meeting day and obtain additional information by contacting Rev. Dr. Darla ("Dee Dee") Turlington, one of the leaders, at darla.turlington@gmail.com or 908-338-0053. Verbal participation is voluntary; you will not be called on to read, speak or pray aloud unless you wish.
