From the Clubhouse

From the Desk of
Tim Timlin, General Manager/COO

Dear Members,

Thank you to everyone for your unwavering commitment to Hammock Dunes, as we started the new year with an outstanding month and look forward to continuing our strong financial performance. I am happy to report that our food & beverage offerings exceeded expectations and were driven by our enhanced activities calendar. Rest assured we will continue to update our offerings including menus and special events to showcase our ongoing pledge of Continuous Evolution to Excellence.

In collaboration with management, our 2023 Committees are off and running looking to provide you the best possible member experience. As I reflected in March, our Committee structure is a pivotal piece of our Club Governance. While historically, Committees can be viewed as an extension of operational management and a direct link to communicate a message, they also serve a much larger purpose. Hammock Dunes Club and the club industry in general is always evolving and a strong, passionate committee works together with leadership to assist in deciding the long-range needs of our valued members. Our short-term goals are always to provide an active calendar surrounded by terrific events, awesome hospitality and warm camaraderie, but rest assured we never take our eye off of the future.

During this time of year a number of your Hammock Dunes management team will attend the annual conference hosted by their professional association to update their certifications, learn the newest trends and most importantly learn from working their individual peer network. Once they return each one will share one specific topic with our team that will impact our industry in the near future. While the topic of technology always has a place, the concept brought forth from both the PGA & GCSAA (Matt & Matt) was the downsizing of middle management. Now that being said I'm not sure if the elimination is a product of wage growth in other areas or the shrinking of career professionals, but it sounds like a return to the eighties when "lean & mean" was the preferred approach.

Yours in Service, Tim Timlin, CCM, CCE, CAM

HDLGA News... 18 Holers

Submitted by Alison Wright, HDLGA Vice President

February was a busy month of fabulous golf events! We kicked it off with a “Fewest Putts” event at the Creek. Congratulations to our winner, Debbie Kiss, who had a great round with only 31 putts!

The Masters Challenge had a big turnout of 29 ladies and was played on a beautiful, warm and sunny day. Congratulations to our overall winner, Lin Culver, who shot a very impressive 69, and kudos to all the winners in each of the four flights.

The Rally was February 22, and Hammock Dunes Cares was again very well supported by so many of you — your generosity was incredible this year. Details will be in April’s Dunescape.

March and April will be busy months of fun golf events:

- LGA Club Championship — Wed.-Fri., March 8-10
- LGA Member/Member — Wed.-Fri., March 22-24
- LGA Member/Guest — Wed.-Fri., April 12-14

Every Wednesday is Ladies Day, so sign up and come play with us!

Nine-Holers

Submitted by Susan Kolka

The nine-hole golfers are trying something new on Ladies Day Wednesdays. Last month the nine-hole golfers were introduced to attendance awards. One player is randomly selected from the tee sheet to earn a golf-shop credit. All you need to do is play golf.

Starting in March we will also be playing games on Ladies Day Wednesdays. Prizes, in the form of golf-shop credits, will be awarded to members who master the game. On March 1 we will be playing for pars. On March 15 we will be playing for putts. Details about the games will be emailed to all nine-hole golfers. The attendance awards and game day prizes will continue through the season ending May 3, 2023.

Reminder: Coastal Niners will be playing at Grand Haven on March 6. Our final Coastal Niner event is April 20 at Pine Lakes. Please email Stella Ruggiano at lruggiano@aol.com to join in the fun!

See you out on the course!

March is upon us which means spring is right around the corner! I am sure most of you are tired of the cold and wind that January and February brought us from time to time. With March hopefully bringing warmer temperatures, most of the country is awaiting the arrival of spring and the "official" golf season.

For us, the season is starting to wind down but we still have quite a busy month ahead of us. While we will have plenty of events this month, much of the golfing world will be focusing on a small event happening just up the coast from us in a few weeks. That's right, it is Players Championship month.

Being a golf fan, I really enjoy the big tournaments and everything that goes on around them. All week long, I find myself glued to The Golf Channel and especially enjoy their "Live From" segments that air in the evenings of the big tournaments. Now that I live in close proximity to TPC Sawgrass, I definitely plan to get up there to take in some of the action and I would encourage you to, as well. I was fortunate to live in Augusta, Georgia for three years and always spent some time at The Masters during Masters week and look to do the same with The Players Championship.

Should you get an opportunity to get to TPC Sawgrass for the tournament, I encourage all of you to spend some time at the practice areas and observe how the best players in the world practice, especially if you are there Monday through Wednesday. I firmly believe we can all learn from the best players in the world by watching their practice routines, and during tournament days, their warm-up routines. Pay attention to how they practice their short games and putting as well. All of us want to play a bit better so if you get to the tournament, take some notes. You never know what you might see Rory or Jordan or Justin doing that might help your game!!

We have a busy month, as March is "Championship Month" with all three of our Club Championships being contested. Check the list of upcoming events for March.

MGA News...

The inaugural MGA Winter Classic was held on Feb 2-3 at the Creek and Links Courses. Thirty-four 2-man teams competed in this new event. The weather was beautiful on the first day, but unfortunately heavy rains prevented the second round from being completed. As a result, the Day 1 leaders were declared the Champions. Congrats to John Balzarini and Will Conniff who took home first place. Rick Woods and Tom Salcito finished second, with Frank DiGraci and Robert Bogart finishing third.

Croquet News....

As the days quickly pass, Croquet becomes more popular with all Hammock Dunes Club members... The calm seaside courts relax your game, thus enjoyment abounds!!

Rolling Back..... In January we celebrated our 29th Croquet Anniversary and Birthday Party honoring our Members. Fun was had by all especially in the photo booth clowning with hats, which made this party hit #1! We thank Diane Leifer, Social Chair, and Julie Gamble for a memorable night. Crystal Hill and dedicated staff for an evening are appreciated by all.

Also in January, the Mixers of Hammock Dunes Croquet met at Grand Haven for a morning of fun Golf Croquet followed by lunch at their cafe. It's always a pleasure to meet other croquet clubs.

Rolling Ahead..... Look for emails about future events. On Friday, March 17, wear green to honor St. Pat.

As mentioned in February, David Davis will chair the Nominating Committee. Helping him are: Captain Don Finch, Maureen Villiotte, Michael Packard, and Connie Wolfson. Any questions may be referred to David Davis at dmdvs12@gmail.com.

Croquet Members....we are growing by leaps and bounds. We welcome Sharon and Mike Lochirco....now part of our Croquet Family!

The entire Croquet Association extends its heartfelt condolences to the Farber family on the passing of Dr. Sheldon Farber. Thank you for your devotion to the Game of Croquet.

The Royal Opera House, 2020

According to The Guardian, Lise Davidsen makes a “phenomenal Leonore,” who “more than fulfills the high expectations placed on” the rising superstar. All are welcome. The program will begin promptly at 4 p.m. in the Board Room. There will be one 15-minute intermission, and it will end at 6:30 p.m. Please remember to arrive early and enjoy a glass of wine or champagne before. As always, after the final curtain falls and the applause dies down, please consider staying for dinner.

Presented by Jinny Crum-Jones and Ian Jones in association with Barbara Arzonetti.

Book Club

Plan to join Book Club for Adriana Trigiani's opus, THE GOOD LEFT UNDONE. It's a sweeping epic, meticulously researched, about three generations of the Tuscan Cabrelli family amid war, heartbreak and family secrets.

Knowing that her days are numbered, octogenarian Matelda reveals the truth about her mother, Domenica's, rarely discussed first marriage to Scottish sea captain McVicars. The revelations have wide-ranging results for the family and the women from different generations who are at the heart of the novel. Set in the present day and in the years leading up to the Second World War, author Trigiani says that her goal in writing this novel was "to dramatize the deeper roots and context that compels a family to emigrate, and to examine the meaning of home."

Linda Browning will lead our discussion on Wednesday, March 15, at 4 p.m. in the Links Lounge. All members are welcome. If you have any question, contact Julie Duffy, Claudia Pierce or Carol Swinburn.
